Division of Alcohol & Tobacco Enforcement agents working in the Rehoboth Beach area responded with Delaware State Police to 110 Cornwall Road in Rehoboth Beach Yacht & Country Club in Rehoboth Beach for a report of a loud party. Upon police arrival several juveniles fled on foot in several directions. Contact was made with the responsible adult/host at the party, Diana Hamer, 37, of Rehoboth Beach. Hamer was house-sitting for a relative and was present while a large group of juveniles were having a party and consuming alcoholic beverages on the premises.

DATE agents arrested three juveniles, ages 14, 16, and 17 for underage consumption of alcohol. In addition Hamer was arrested by agents for Providing Alcohol to a Minor and three counts of Endangering the Welfare of a Child and released on a criminal summons. The juveniles that were arrested were released to the custody of parents or guardians.
